

Tracy Guerin

Tracy Guerin, appointed as Director of Department of Retirement Services (DRS) in mid-2016, was named to an ex-officio position with the Washington State Investment Board (WSIB) on September 15, 2016. She also serves as on the Pension Funding Council and the Select Committee on Pension Policy. At the WSIB, her role includes serving on the Audit Committee, Private Markets Committee and Public Markets Committee.

At DRS, Guerin heads a staff of more than 200 who administer a complex public retirement system that serves more than 725,000 current and former public employees in state and local government. Retirement benefits earned by these employees result in more than $3.5 billion in payments each year, most of which is distributed in the state of Washington.

Guerin began her career in state government with the Department of Labor and Industries. During the past 30 years, she has worked at numerous state agencies, most recently serving as Deputy Director of the Office of Financial Management. She has also served as Chief of Staff for the Department of Social and Health Services, Deputy Director at the Department of Corrections and the Department of Information Services, and as Deputy Secretary for the Office of the Secretary of State.

She was raised in Washington, attended Washington State University and completed her bachelor's degree at The Evergreen State College. She has completed the Strategic Leadership for State Executives program at Duke University as well as executive education programs through the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. She received the Governor's Management and Leadership Award in 2012.

