

Robert S. Nakahara, CPA

Bob Nakahara has served as one of the Board's five non-voting members for several years and consecutive terms. He is a member of the WSIB's Public Markets and Audit committees.

Nakahara is the Chief Financial Officer for InDemand Interpreting, a Seattle based company founded in 2007 to help healthcare organizations improve patient care by strengthening communication between healthcare providers and their Deaf or limited English proficient (LEP) patients.

Previously, he was the chief financial officer for the Washington Health Benefit Exchange; Qliance Medical Management, Inc.; and was a partner at Tatum Consulting, LLC; CFO for MedManage Systems, Inc.. Before that he was managing director of Alliance Health Technologies, LLC; president of Advanced Research Systems, Inc.; CFO for Mentor Health Northwest/Spectrum Health of Washington, Inc.; and, senior vice president/CFO of PREMERA Blue Cross of Washington & Alaska.

He is past chair and remains a member of the Finance and Audit Committee for the Medic One Foundation. He is also a member of Washington State Board of Accountancy-Advisory Board.

Nakahara is a CPA and received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in accounting, finance, and international business, Cum Laude from the University of Washington. He earned his MBA in finance, Magna Cum Laude, from the University of Puget Sound.

