

Jeffrey T. Seely

Jeff Seely was reappointed to his fourth term on the Investment Board in January, 2011. He is a member of the WSIB's Private Markets Committee.

Seely is the Chairman of the Board of Directors for Lighter Capital, a rapidly growing online lender that provides growth capital to technology companies.

He was Founder, Chairman and CEO of ShareBuilder Securities, one of the largest online brokerage firms in the United States.

He served as chief executive officer of Recruiting.com, Inc., a Seattle based online recruiting firm and, earlier in his career, spent 15 years in investment banking at Robertson Stephens & Co., Dean Witter and Smith Barney, where he focused on financings, IPOs, and mergers and acquisitions for financial services firms.

Seely currently serves on the boards of Delta Dental of Washington and KEXP Radio.

Seely holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from St. Lawrence University and a MBA from Columbia University Graduate School of Business.

