

David Nierenberg

David Nierenberg was reappointed to his fourth three-year term on the Washington State Investment Board in January, 2015. He is a member of the WSIB's Private Markets and Public Markets committees.

Nierenberg is President of Nierenberg Investment Management Company, a Camas Washington-based investment firm which manages The D3 Fund, which consists of three partnerships with more than $200 million under management. He has been a full time, professional investor in public and private equity since 1985.

He is a former general partner of Trinity Ventures specializing in healthcare, financial services and turnarounds; senior vice president of General Electric Venture Capital Corporation; and, a partner in Bain & Company, a management consulting firm.

Nierenberg served on the board of Peace Health Southwest Washington Medical Center for 13 years where, as vice chair, he led the capital campaign for the non-profit hospital based in Vancouver, Washington. He also served six years on the Governor's Council of Economic Advisors.

He is co-chair of the Millstein Center for Global Markets and Corporate Ownership at Columbia University Law School and serves on the international research advisory board of Glass-Lewis, the proxy advisor firm. In addition, Nierenberg currently serves on the following boards: the Southwest Washington Community Foundation; Kuni Automotive; Kuni Foundation; Electro Scientific Industries (NASDAQ-ESIO); Whitman College and the advisory board of Holt Distressed. He chairs the investment committee which oversees the investment of the Whitman College endowment and is the chair of the PSA Healthcare Board. He has served on private, profit, and not-for-profit board for over 30 years.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree, summa cum laude, from Yale College and a Law Degree from Yale Law School and is a retired member of the Massachusetts State Bar.

