

ALLYSON TUCKER CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Allyson Tucker is Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Washington State Investment Board, one of the United States' leading institutional investors. The WSIB manages more than $205 billion of state retirement plans, insurance funds, and other public trust assets. The WSIB is a global institutional investor and a leader in private asset investing, with private equity, real estate, and tangible assets comprising slightly over half of its retirement portfolio.

Allyson joined the WSIB in 2009 and has 25 years of investment management experience. Before her appointment as CEO in January 2022, she served as Chief Investment Officer and, prior to that, as Senior Investment Officer heading the organization's Risk Management and Asset Allocation team. Before joining the WSIB, she worked as an Investment Specialist for BMGI, the investment manager for the

William H. Gates III Family Office and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation Trust. She also worked as a research analyst for a full-service Pacific Northwest brokerage firm.

A native of Olympia, Washington, Allyson graduated cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Washington with a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration in accounting. She holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation, is a Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA), and is a member of the Seattle Society of Chartered Financial Analysts and the CAIA Seattle chapter. Allyson serves on the Board and Chairs the Audit Committee of the Pacific Pension & Investment Institute (PPI). In addition, she serves as a member of the Ownership Works Pension Fund Leadership Council and the World Economic Forum's Monetary System Centre Advisory Council.
